Early post office records do not state the county of Jone's Store postmasters. Post Office Listings of 1802, 1803, and 1816 show this post office in Warren County, while the 1825 Bradley map shows Jone's Store was well into Halifax County. The 1822 Post Office List shows Jone's Store post office was in Halifax County. With all this inconsistent information, it is possible that Jone's Store always was in Halifax County. It is listed here in Warren County where the original catalogue listed it until it's actual location can be verified.
