Conclave

(Richmond)

Post Office Department originally listed this office in Richmond County, but the postmaster was appointed after the Conclave post office was in Scotland County. It is believed this office never was in Richmond County and was erroneously listed in Richmond County when the postmaster was first appointed on 14 October 1889.

Although the Post Office Department records of postmaster appointments show this office had a postmaster in March 1888, the Postal Bulletins of 1888 never listed this office. There is some question that the office ever existed.

Laurel Hill (1) became Laurel Hill (2) in 1861 when the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherfordton RR bypassed Laurel Hill (1). The post office site was changed. This is in conflict with POD records which show that Laurel Hill (1) was changed to Laurinburg.
